 Wonders will never cease. The writer having had four of these wonders come under his personal knowledge, deems them of enough importance to be placed before the readers of this paper.

his work, as any physical effort gave him a splitting headache. Word came from the quarantine hospital that he was to be released through their lines twice, and succeeded by wading in the bay. He will be sent to Ellis Island to-morrow.

THE DECLINING PLAGUE.

Residents of Hamburg Beginning to Flock Back to that City.

HAMBURG, Sept. 26.—There have been 107 fresh cases of cholera in this city to-day, or 10 more than yesterday; 80 deaths, or 9 fewer than yesterday; 191 burials, or 15 fewer than yesterday. The hospitals contain 2,137 patients, or 75 fewer than yesterday.

The heavy decrease in the number of deaths and burials yesterday has had a remarkable effect upon the persons who fled from this city three or four weeks ago. About sixty families returned to the city to-day, and many more of the wealthier class have sent their families back. Yesterday only 100 strangers between forty and fifty strangers registered at the hotel to-day. Additional horse cars have been ordered, and the streets are less crowded than have been more numerous than on any previous week day for four weeks.

The Frankfurter Nachrichten has begun a newspaper war on the rest of Germany. The lack of charity shown toward Hamburg, the lack of aid, and the indifference of the German nation for self-protecting particularism. The imperial Government, is charged with lack of energy and irresolution.

No Cholera Here.

It was said at the Health Department yesterday morning that all the suspected cases which had been reported since Saturday had, on investigation, turned out to be nothing more than cases of dysentery. All the bulletins issued yesterday read the same: "No case of cholera in this city since last bulletin."

service. He has given orders to have four inspectors on duty at the Bureau of Contagious Diseases, to inspect and promptly all suspicious cases reported.

The extra force of inspectors who have been ordered to duty at the bureau, are some of the best men in the health department during the past fortnight there has been an accumulation of a number of such cases, as there usually is in the fall.

POLITICS BEHIND IT, BAUMAN SAYS.

He Is Under Arrest for Hiring Negroes to Kill a Democratic Rival.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 26.—More than ordinary interest is being manifested in the arrest of ex-Judge Bauman, the Republican leader of Jefferson parish, who is charged with having hired two negroes to assassinate Mayor Henry Long of Kenner. Charges are being made by the officers of the health department that the arrest of Bauman was the result of a forced confession from Dennis Richards, one of the negroes who shot and nearly killed Long last July. He charged that the entire matter was nicely arranged so as to damage Bauman's power with the negroes of the parish, and to put him in the line of the health department. He would be very efficient in the political campaign. The charges of political jobbery are being made by the officers of the health department. Bauman's politics has nothing to do with his arrest, but that he will be taught not to hire negroes to assassinate his white political opponents.

Dennis Richards, to whom no hope of a pardon is held out, is the man who made the confession which led to Bauman's arrest. He sticks to his story, and says that he would never have sold his life for a dollar. He says that he was paid, and paid the full price for the shooting. He says that he did the job according to agreement, and that he was not hurt. He says that he did not die when so grievously wounded.

A preliminary hearing will be had in a day or two, and the case will be taken up in court on December 3, as Judge Emilio Holt is absent on a tour.

The work of lynching Hauman have been in-sulted in, but it is not expected that an attempt will be made to do so before the trial.
 Aside from his objectionable political views, Hauman is specially ostracized, as he is married to a full-blooded negro, and has children by the marriage.
